Students Recognized by Board

At their June 6 meeting, the DeKalb School Board recognized the winners of the Human Relations Commission Unity in the Community Diversity Expression Contest. In the multimedia division at the middle school level, the winners were: Olivia Hayes, first place; Anna Henderson, second place; Jisoo Suzie Kim, second place; and Alexandra Anderson, third place. In the narrative division: Teresa Colletti, first place; Joly Wu, second place; and Troy Talaga, third place. Winners at the elementary level were Tianna Nepean in first place, Ryann Schopfer in second place, and Nathalie Scheid in third place.

DeKalb High School band director Reuben Cooper and representatives of the high school bands were also recognized. The Concert Band, the Symphonic Band, and the Jazz Ensemble all won trophies at the 2007 Heritage Music Festival in San Antonio, Texas.
